TITLE: ADMINISTRATOR CODE OF ETHICS

ADOPTED: February 25, 2013

REVISED:

1. Guidelines	300. ADMINISTRATOR CODE OF ETHICS The American Association of School Administrators has established the following code of ethics for administrators. These policies of ethical behavior are designed to inspire a quality of behavior that reflects honor and dignity on the profession of school administration. They are not intended as inflexible rules nor unchangeable laws. They serve to measure the propriety of an administrator's behavior in his/her working relationships. They encourage and emphasize those positive attributes of professional conduct which characterize strong and effective administration leadership. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The professional school administrator constantly upholds the honor and dignity of his/her profession in all his/her actions and relations with pupils, colleagues, School Board members, and the public.2. The professional school administrator obeys local, state, and national laws; holds him/herself to high ethical and moral standards, and gives loyalty to his/her country and to the cause of democracy and liberty.3. The professional school administrator accepts the responsibility throughout his/her career to master and to contribute to the growing body of specialized knowledge, concepts, and skills which characterize school administration as a profession.4. The professional school administrator strives to provide the finest possible educational experiences and opportunities for all persons in the district.5. The professional school administrator applying for a position or entering into contractual agreements seeks to preserve and enhance the prestige and status of his/her profession.6. The professional school administrator carries out in good faith all policies duly adopted by the local Board and the regulations of state authorities and renders professional service to the best of his/her ability.
